

Siddhi
QUESTION BANK

Contents

Geography	1Q →
Physical Geography	1Q →
Rivers	1Q →
History	1Q →
Modern India	1Q →
Independence	1Q →
Science	1Q →
Chemistry	1Q →
Elements	1Q →

Geography > Physical Geography

Rivers

Q1. Which is the longest river in the world?

Ans: B

A) Amazon B) Nile C) Yangtze D) Mississippi

Easy

Rivers

Explanation ↓

Science > Chemistry

Elements

Q2. What is the chemical symbol for gold?

Ans: C

A) Go B) Gd C) Au D) Ag

Medium

Elements

Explanation ↓

History > Modern India

Independence

Q3. In which year did India gain independence from British colonial rule?

Ans: B

A) 1945 B) 1947 C) 1950 D) 1952

Easy

Independence

Explanation ↓

Explanations

Q1 — Explanation

The Nile River in Africa is traditionally considered the longest river in the world at approximately 6,650 km.

Correct Answer: B) Nile

← Back to Question 1

Q2 — Explanation

Au comes from the Latin word for gold, Aurum.

Correct Answer: C) Au

← Back to Question 2

Q3 — Explanation

India gained independence on 15 August 1947 after sustained freedom movement led by Mahatma Gandhi and others.

Correct Answer: B) 1947

← Back to Question 3

